

Frequently Asked Questions

Attending an Intelligent Horsemanship Course

- To attend any of the available Intelligent Horsemanship courses we require you to be a current member of Intelligent Horsemanship.
- If you are not an existing member at the time of booking your course you can purchase a membership as the same time as purchasing your course.
- To attend either of the Intermediate courses – Handling the Untouched Horse or Leading and Loading you should have already attended the 5 day Foundation Course.
- We can ONLY accept students under 16 years old on the Perfect Manners Weekend and a parent or guardian must sign the application form and accompany the child at all times during the course (either as a participant or spectator).

Application Form

- We require all course attendees to complete a course application form for health and safety reasons. A course application form will be emailed to you with your booking confirmation or you can download the form on the course pages of www.intelligenthorsemanship.co.uk

Changing or cancelling your course booking.

- Course fees will be refunded in full, less £30 administration fee, ONLY if cancellation is confirmed 30 days before the start date of the booked course. Only 50% of the course fee paid, less £30 administration fee will be refunded if cancellation is confirmed within 30 days of the start date of the booked course.
- If you still wish to attend a course on a different date, rebooking will be required and an administration fee of £30 will be charged per person attending. We recommend that students insure themselves against loss of fees due to cancellation or early termination of course, for whatever reason.
